Grapevine Public Library Chess Club meets every Saturday at 1 pm

Chess is an excellent activity for anyone wanting to increase critical thinking and logic skills. All ages and skill levels are invited to come to the library to play chess on Saturdays at 1 pm. There will be people to assist and instruct you, or you can take advantage of some of the chess resources The Friends of the Library provided for us.

- Chess Master III electronic chess board
- Chess software available on our laptop
- Chess sets with moves marked on pieces
- Magnetic hanging instructional chess board
- "No Stress Chess" educational sets with cards to help you learn as you play

We invite you to spend a Saturday afternoon exercising your mind at the library by participating in Chess Club. While you're here, check out some of our chess DVDs and books too. We're looking ahead to tournament play as well, so now is the time to sharpen your skills. Please join us!

Name Droppers
